

RESONANT LEARNING IN MUSIC THERAPY

RESONANT LEARNING IN MUSIC THERAPY

- therapeutic training and self-experience in music therapy training programs

A hybrid professional event and book launch

26 APRIL 2023 13.00-18.00 (GBT/UTC+2)

Aalborg University. Department of communication and psychology.

Musikkens Hus, Musikkens Plads 1, 9000 Aalborg. Lokale 339.

Participation is free! Please sign up using this link:

<https://forms.office.com/e/fBV1nb8JnA>

- 13.00 Introduction and welcome. Associate Professor, Emerita PhD Inge Nygaard Pedersen, Aalborg University. DK (Live)
- 13.05 The history of the Aalborg Music Therapy training program – a perspective from outside in. Associate Professor, Emeritus PhD Søren Willert. Aalborg University. (Live)
- 13.20 Author collage – brief reflections from authors of the book. Aalborg University. (Live)
- 13.35 Theoretical perspectives on a modern integrative psychodynamic approach in music therapy – nine basic assumptions. Associate Professor, PhD Bolette Daniels Beck, Aalborg University. (Live)
- 13.50 Analytical Music Therapy training – past, present and future. The legacy of Benedikte Barth Scheiby. Professor, PhD Seung-A Jung, Molloy University. USA (Online)
- 14.05 Coffee break
- 14.20 What characterizes a trained music therapist? Professor, Emerita PhD Denise Grocke, Melbourne University. AUS (online)
- 14.35 Reflections on the relationship of improvisation instruction and personal therapy in the music therapy training. Professor, Dr Susanne Metzner, University of Augsburg. G (Online)
- 14.50 Becoming a psychodynamic psychotherapist – a journey through theory, clinical practice, supervision, and research. Presentation of the learning model of the University Clinic. Associate Professor, PhD Ole Karkov Østergaard. Aalborg University. (Live)
- 15.05 The importance of therapeutic training in music therapy programs; a Norwegian perspective. Professor, PhD Gro Trondalen, Norges Musikkhøgskole. N (Online)
- 15.20 Coffee break. Live music with jazzy elements. Cand. Mag., PhD Helle Nystrup Lund, Aalborg University Hospital, Psychiatry. (Live)
- 15.35 The significance of experiential training in music therapy programs. British perspectives. Professor, PhD Helen Odell-Miller, Anglia-Ruskin University. UK (Online)
- 15.50 Resonance in music therapy training, practice and beyond. Associate Professor, PhD Charlotte Lindvang, Aalborg University. (Live)
- 16.05 Closure comments - summing up - future perspectives. Associate Professor, Emerita PhD Inge Nygaard Pedersen, Aalborg University. (Live)
- 16.15 Reception and book launch. Celebration of the anthology; Pedersen, IN., Lindvang, C. & Beck, BD. (Eds.) Resonant Learning in Music Therapy. A training Model to Tune the Therapist. Jessica Kingsley Publisher. 21.10.2022. (Reduced bookprice on the day in Aalborg!) Read more: https://uk.jkp.com/products/resonant-learning-in-music-therapy?_pos=1&_sid=d59af0d1e&_ss=r
- 18.00 Dinner at restaurant Sanya, Rendsburggade 18. Self-payment.