

ShareENG

Event at ENGINEERING: December 14th, 9:00-12:45

The COVID-19 pandemic forced us to rethink our teaching strategies. As a result, we gained new insights. The question now is: How can we transform these insights into an everyday teaching practice at the faculty?

Join the ShareENG event and take part in the sharing of practical experiences and ideas across departments. Perhaps we can take our teaching practice to the next level together.

Program:

- 9:00-9:30: Morning coffee
- 9:30-9:40: Welcome (Dean)
- 9:40-9:45: Presentation of Program (Prodean)
- 9:45-10:00: Sessions Part 1 Sessions: showcase teaching experiments (a special call will be send out)
- 11:00-12:00: Sessions Part 2 Sessions: showcase teaching experiments simultaneously
- 11:00-12:00: Collaborative workshop on evaluating and measuring impact of teaching experiments and getting results published
- 12:00-12:30: Lunch
- 12:30-12:45: Closing remarks (Prodean ENG)

The most transferable presentation will be awarded. Participants vote for this during the sessions.
